

|             |             |                |
|-------------|-------------|----------------|
| Name: ..... |             | Mark:..... |
| Form: ..... | Date: ..... |                |

Évaluation Lexique

Unit 4 Ireland: One Border, Multiple Identities

Exercise 1

Match the words with their definitions.

5 pts

- |                         |                                                                         |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| debunk stereotypes •    | • wrong idea; something people believe but which is not true            |
| misconception •         | • connect two groups that were separated; to reconcile them             |
| bridge the gap •        | • going from one side of a frontier to the other; between two countries |
| Catholic / Protestant • | • the two main religious communities in Northern Ireland                |
| cross-border •          | • go against clichés and show they are false                            |

Exercise 2

Complete with the correct word from the list.

5 pts

banner – boundary – division – unity – identify with – wave a flag

- The peace walls in Belfast are a symbol of _____ between two communities.
- During national celebrations, people often _____ in the streets.
- A _____ is a type of flag that represents a nation or a group.
- The Irish border is a political _____ between the UK and the Republic of Ireland.
- Some people in Northern Ireland do not _____ one single identity.

Exercise 3

Translate using the vocabulary from the unit.

5 pts

1. une frontière : .....
2. un stéréotype, un cliché : .....
3. un sondage : .....
4. rester : .....
5. un nationaliste / un républicain : .....

Exercise 4

Complete with the correct word from the list. Change its form if necessary.

5 pts

survey – cross-border – Ulster – identify as – remain – Irish unity

1. According to a _____, many Catholics in Northern Ireland support _____.
2. Many Protestants would prefer Northern Ireland to _____ in the United Kingdom.
3. Northern Ireland is sometimes called _____ by the unionist part of the population.
4. The new football competition is a _____ project including clubs from both parts of Ireland.
5. Some people in Northern Ireland _____ Irish, others British, and some Northern Irish.

Évaluation Lexique

Unit 4 Ireland: One Border, Multiple Identities

Exercise 1

debunk stereotypes → go against clichés and show they are false misconception → wrong idea; something people believe but which is not true bridge the gap → connect two groups that were separated; to reconcile them

Catholic / Protestant → the two main religious communities in Northern Ireland

cross-border → going from one side of a frontier to the other; between two countries

Exercise 2

1. division / 2. wave a flag / 3. banner / 4. boundary / 5. identify with

Exercise 3

1. a border / a boundary / 2. a stereotype / a misconception / 3. a survey / a poll

4. to remain / to stay / 5. a Nationalist / a Republican

Exercise 4

1. According to a survey, many Catholics in Northern Ireland support Irish unity.

2. Many Protestants would prefer Northern Ireland to remain in the United Kingdom.

3. Northern Ireland is sometimes called Ulster by the unionist part of the population.

4. The new football competition is a cross-border project including clubs from both parts of Ireland.

5. Some people in Northern Ireland identify as Irish, others British, and some Northern Irish.